

JWT (JSON Web Token)

What is JWT?

JWT (JSON Web Token) is a secure token-based authentication mechanism used to verify a user's identity. After successful login, the server generates a token, and the client sends this token with every protected API request.

Why did we use JWT?

Secure Authentication

Stateless Authentication (No Session Storage)

Protect APIs

Verify User Identity

Implement Role-Based Access Control (RBAC)